Welcome to our 2022 Harvest Reading Plan: Kings & Prophets: Divided Nation.

In 2021 we read about the establishment of the nation of Israel in the Promised Land. This year we will continue with the history. But before we do that let us recap the story in a nutshell.

Genesis told us the story of God's creation, of the fall of mankind into sin and God's judgement on sin, but we also find the promise that God will send One to destroy sin. This promise is confirmed to Abraham in an unconditional, everlasting covenant. God will give him a son, innumerable descendants that would become the nation of Israel and they would have the everlasting possession of the land of Canaan. After Abraham we read of the lives of the next 3 generations of his offspring and it closes with his descendants moving to Egypt to escape a famine.

Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers, Deuteronomy: 430 years later, Abraham's offspring is enslaved in Egypt. God calls Moses to liberate the Israelites from slavery and lead them to the Promised Land. God, as Israel's king, gives Israel His laws at Mount Sinai. Due to disobedience Israel wander 40 years in the wilderness. Moses dies just before the Israelites cross the Jordan into Canaan.

Joshua: this is the record of Israel's conquest of the land promised by God in Genesis. From the outset the people knew that they were a people under God, with blessing promised if they obey God's commandments, but also cursing if they disobey and worship other gods.

Judges: this is the record of Israel's 300+ year downward spiral into idolatry. Time and again God graciously sends a judge to deliver his people when they are oppressed by an enemy due to their disobedience. And time and again they fall back into old patterns of disobedience and idolatry.

The book of Ruth takes place sometime around the end of Judges.

1 & 2 Samuel: Records the 50+ year transition from the period of the judges to the period of the kings and contains the 80+ years where Saul and David reigned. Israel demanded a king like all the nations around them. Samuel, God's prophet, reluctantly appointed Saul as Israel's first king. He turned his back on God. David became king, a man after God's own heart. God promised David in covenant that he will always have a descendant to the Davidic dynasty. His son Solomon became king.

Psalms, Proverbs, Song of Solomon and Ecclesiastes were written/compiled during the reign of David or Solomon, during the time of 1 & 2 Samuel.

1 & 2 Kings and 1 & 2 Chronicles: Records the splitting of the kingdom in the time of Solomon. Before Israel had a king, God set the standards and He warned what would happen if His people did not listen. In Deuteronomy 17, kings were warned not to multiply wives so that their hearts would not turn away from God.

Solomon did not listen and the consequences were disastrous. His many wives from other countries brought idols with them and “Solomon held fast to these in love.” The one called “beloved of the Lord, the builder of God’s holy temple,” turned away from God and toward the gods of his wives. His heart was no longer totally devoted to the Lord his God as the heart of David his father had been. As prophesied, the Lord tore the kingdom in two, giving ten tribes into the hands of Jeroboam, Solomon’s servant.

Solomon’s death marked the end of an era (the monarchy). The stage for Israel’s division and moral decline was set. Jeroboam took the throne of Israel (the Northern Kingdom) with Samaria as its capital while Rehoboam, Solomon’s son, became the king of Judah (the Southern Kingdom) with Jerusalem as its capital.

This is where we will pick up our reading plan for 2022: Kings & Prophets: Divided Nation. We will focus on the kings – the good and the bad – and how their leadership and influence on God’s people’s decline. God constantly sent Prophets, His voice to His people, to call them to repentance, to call them to obedience of God’s rule and laws. The prophets were covenant enforcers. Despite their warnings of impending judgement and exile in the case of rebellion and disobedience, they also brought hope of a restored nation under Messiah who would sit on the Davidic throne as promised.

This Messianic King is Jesus. He is the King of Kings, the fulfilment of the promise, the one to sit on David’s throne. He is the one promised to conquer the sin of mankind, He is the one promised as the Seed of Abraham and in Him all the promises of God find their fulfilment. All the kings of Israel and Judah could never measure up to God’s ideal, righteous king, not even David. We have included in this reading plan a daily chapter from the Gospels to keep our focus on Jesus, our Prophet, Priest and King. This chapter is optional if you cannot do it daily, but maybe you can keep it for the weekends when there is no planned reading.

We will add the reading of the prophets during the time that they lived.

During the year you will find some reading that will be centred on specific seasons: Passover, Ascension/Pentecost and Advent/Christ’s first and 2nd coming. Augustine said that the New Testament is concealed in the Old Testament, but that the Old Testament is revealed in the New Testament. Jesus said that everything written in the Law, the Prophets and the Writings was about Him. So with that in mind, we added the focused readings surrounding these appointed times.

The Old Testament places a tremendous emphasis on the holy character and works of God that anticipate fulfilment in the person of Christ in the New Testament. In essence, it lays the groundwork for the only salvation possible - the salvation God provides in His Son “by which we must be saved.” The Bible is a progressive revelation - all sixty-six books are essential to understanding the whole counsel of God. In the Old Testament we come to know God - who He is and how He works in the affairs of mankind - and we develop a godly fear of His awesome majesty, holy character, and works. The nation that is in the front and centre of all God's dealings is Israel. So as you read Kings & Prophets: Divided Nation, you find yourself immersed in Israel's history, reading about events surrounding the reigns of her kings in an effort to get the big picture - to understand how these events affect her relationship to God and how God responds to His covenant people. It's not important to remember every detail of a king's life as long as you understand the essence of it - how lessons from his life and leadership can apply to your life and walk with the Lord.

According to 1 Corinthians 10:11 and Romans 15:4, what God chose to preserve in the Old Testament is for our example and instruction, "upon whom the ends of the ages have come" (1 Corinthians 10:11). Come and drink from the waters, come and eat the bread of life. Only Jesus satisfies. Let us say with Peter: "Lord, to whom shall we go? You have words of eternal life. We have believed and have come to know that You are the Holy One of God." John 6:68-69

Memory Verses

We invite you to memorise the Word of God with us this year. You will find 1-2 verses to memorise every Monday. Read them over and over, meditate on them, and dissect them. Write them out and keep it on you. You can also follow these on your smartphone by downloading the Fighter Verses App. Then share your memorised verse with someone on Sunday.

So to summarise:

- Monday – Friday: 1-2 chapters reading Kings & Prophets
1 chapter from the Gospels
- Monday Start new Memory verse
- Sunday Recite memory verse

Our prayer for you as you engage God's Word together with fellow Harvest believers is that you will be established and rooted firmly in the Truth, bearing fruit for eternity.

In Christ
