Call for Creative Writing Submissions

Theme: Community

Dear Poets/Creative Writers,

As part of the annual Harvest Christian Art Exhibition, we invite Christian poets and writers to submit original work exploring this year's theme: Community.

Throughout Scripture, we see God's heart for people to live, grow, serve, and flourish together. Whether through friendship, family, church, hospitality, reconciliation, or belonging, we encourage you to explore the beauty, complexity, and significance of community through your writing.

We are looking for:

- Poetry (any style or form)
- Reflective or creative pieces
- Word Count 200-250 words

Exhibition Details

Selected pieces will be displayed as part of the Harvest Christian Art Exhibition in August, alongside visual artworks from local artists. Rather than being sold, these pieces will form part of the exhibition experience, inviting attendees to pause, reflect, and engage with the written word.

Poets whose work is selected will be credited alongside their pieces and included as contributing artists within the exhibition.

Submission Guidelines

- All work must be original and unpublished.
- Submissions should align with the theme of Community and reflect a Christian worldview.
- Submit your work as a PDF or Word document.
- Include a short biography (50–100 words).
- Submission automatically grants permission to Harvest Christian Church to display your work as part of the exhibition and related promotional material.

Important Dates

Submission Deadline: 3 AUGUST 2026

How to Submit

Email your submission to creative@harvest.co.za with the subject line:

Our Heart

The Harvest Christian Art Exhibition exists to celebrate creativity as a gift from God and to provide a platform for emerging and established Christian artists. Through this exhibition, we hope to create space for meaningful conversations, fresh perspectives, and expressions of faith that point people toward Christ.

We look forward to experiencing your work.

Warm regards.
